Rock Island Parks and Recreation hosts: Chicago Theater Trip – The Mel Brooks Musical “Young Frankenstein”

IT'S ALIVE! From the creators of the record-breaking Broadway sensation “The Producers” comes this monster new musical comedy.

A wickedly inspired re-imagining of the Frankenstein legend based on Mel Brooks' classic comedy masterpiece, the story follows bright young Dr. Frankenstein as he attempts to complete his grand-father's masterwork and bring a corpse to life.

Together with his zany helper Igor, curvaceous lab assistant Inga, and in spite of his madcap fiancée Elizabeth, Frankenstein succeeds in creating a monster – but not without scary and quite often hilarious complications.

With such memorable tunes as "The Transylvania Mania," "He Vas My Boyfriend" and "Puttin' on the Ritz," this musical comedy is scientifically-proven, monstrously good entertainment...and the only place you'll witness a singing and dancing laboratory experiment in the largest tuxedo ever made.

Wear black and white in honor of the 1974 film and play Young Frankenstein trivia for prizes en route to Chicago. The bus departs the Parks office at 8:30 a.m., with a stop at Navy Pier for lunch (not included in fee), and returning to Rock Island at 9:00 p.m. Cost is $120 per person. Call 732-7275 and use Code # 7384 to register.
