It's a Jungle in Here! Rock Island Library Summer Programs Unleash Free Fun for Families

From “READ on the Wild Side” reading challenges for kids, teens and adults to more than 86 beastly activities and special performers (including a Niabi Zoo show and a program on the wild side of science), the Rock Island Public Library has put boredom on the extinction list for families this summer.

READ on the Wild Side reading challenges and events for the whole family start Monday, June 8 and conclude Friday, July 17.

As if 86 events weren't enough, the library just added three more programs to an already packed lineup. New programs include an art program for teens, a reading program with dogs, and a special program featuring the “Pinkalicious” character from the children's book series.

Details of the just-added programs include:

Heads & Hands Art with Gloria Burlingame—2 p.m. on Thursdays, June 18, 25, July 2 and 9. Learn to draw faces and hands in this four-day workshop. Working from mannequins and photos, learn basic structures and proportions. Create value in your pictures through shading styles that will give your drawings a 3-D look. For kids going into 8th through 12th grades. Must register! Call 732-7360.

READ with a dog! Monday, June 22 from 4 to 6 p.m. at the Main Library, 401 19th Street and Wednesday, June 24 from 4 to 6 p.m. at the 30/31 Branch Library, 3059 30th Street. Therapy dogs and their handlers from PAW'D will volunteer as reading companions for children at our library. While they can't actually read, dogs are great listeners! The non-judgmental doggy audience is a fun way for school-age kids from 1st through 6th grades to practice reading. Please register - call 732-7360.

“Pinkalicious” book party, Monday, July 13, 6 p.m. at the Main Library Children's Room. Based on the books by Victoria and Elizabeth Kann, Pinkalicious LOVED the color pink so much she actually turned pink! Enjoy the story along with pink songs and crafts for pre-kindergarten through 2nd grades.

Run Wild with Reading Challenges

Programs for pre-school through 6th grades: Programs are available both at the Read-to-Me (pre-reader) level, and the READER level. To win rewards for reading, children can just fill in the slots on their reading logs, available at all three Rock Island Library locations. Prize pick-up is June 22 through July 22, 2009. Have questions for the Summer Reading zookeepers? Just call 309-732-7360!

Programs for pre-teens and teens: Readers in grades 7 through 12 can take a walk on the wild side of reading just by reading in six out of eight age-appropriate categories. The variety of options let teens personalize the program to their interests. To get started, young adult readers can pick up a form at any Rock Island Library. All finishers will be entered in a drawing for gift cards from Best Buy or Target.

Born to be Wild: Adult Summer Reading: Adults simply fill out a short entry form for every book read or audio book listened to between June 8 and July 17. Forms may be dropped off at the Main, 30/31 or Southwest Branch locations. You'll be entered in a drawing for prizes. Read as a family and inspire your kids and grandkids! Winners will be notified by phone.

Summer Reading is sponsored by Friends of the Rock Island Public Library, with additional support from the Milan-Blackhawk Area Public Library District and the Rock Island Library Foundation.
