

Rock Island Arts Advisory Committee, Meeting Summary for April 10th, 2019

Committee Present: Brett Hitchcock, Lori Roderick, Carolyn Krueger, Joedy Cook, Dawn Wohlford-Metallo, Tony Seabolt, and Jodie Kavensky

Staff Present: Kathy Douglass

Visitors: Amber Williams

Review of Minutes from Previous Meeting: Jodie Kavensky made a motion to approve the March Arts Advisory Committee meeting minutes and Carolyn Krueger seconded the motion. The March minutes were then approved by all the members present.

Membership – Renewals and New: Kathy Douglass reported that three committee members are up for reappointment this June. The members then discussed the member vacancy left by Alex McFarland’s resignation. Brett Hitchcock suggested that a representative from DARI should be on the Arts Advisory committee. Erik Reader, who resigned several months ago, just recently emailed Kathy a name. Brett said he felt that there may be someone else at DARI that would be better suited to further the goals of the Arts Plan and that he was going to email DARI personally for a different possible member suggestion.

2019 Sculpture Finalists: Kathy Douglass showed the committee pictures of the sculptures that Rock Island will be receiving for the 2019-2020 season as part of the Rotating Sculpture Program.

Growing Up – for Five Points Intersection

Anywhere - for Centennial Bridge
Visitors Center

Wings - for Southwest Library

Precariously Perched
for Lincoln Park

Sphere
for Longview Park

Other Business:

- ) Kathy reported that she will be moving the Art Meters to new locations in the next couple of weeks now that the weather is nicer. The committee then discussed putting the Art Meter Project on Facebook in conjunction with a promotion involving one or more of the host businesses.
- ) Jodie Kavensky passed out a packet of information about the “GirlParts” event for its “call for artists” and asked the committee to circulate the packet to other artists.

Next Meeting Date: May 8th, 2019 at 4:00 PM in the City Hall lower level conference room.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 4:45 PM.