United Way Presentation.

Special Projects Manager Sally Heffernan and City representative for the 2010 United Way Campaign stated that this is rally week for the City of Rock Island. Ms. Heffernan indicated that 19 presentations are scheduled between 7:30 a.m. this morning to 10:30 p.m. Saturday night. Ms. Heffernan noted that United Way supports many non-profit agencies in the Quad Cities. It was noted that United Way has also created programs to address unmet needs in the Community.

Mr. Bruce Pieper, a loaned executive volunteer from United Way thanked the City for their support last year and past years support. Mr. Pieper stated that the goal for the 2010 United Way Campaign is $10 million dollars, which is approximately a 10% increase over funds raised last year.

Martin Luther King Center Director Jerry Jones discussed some of the King Center’s programs that have benefitted from United Way. Mr. Jones noted that the King Center has been receiving United Way funds for their after school program for over 20 years. Mr. Jones commented that since that time, the afterschool program has expanded, and now serves over 130 kids a year. It was noted that this program had a budget of $30,000.00, but it now has a budget of over $200,000.00 and has expanded to include a summer camp, which serves over 200 children a year. In addition, the King Center is able to provide preventative services with United Way funds that serve over 1,100 kids every year. Mr. Jones advised that through these programs, youth improve their grades, master life skills and improve school attendance.

Mr. Jones stated that these programs provide consistency, a safe place to be and an opportunity to build relationships with responsible adults and the United Way has laid the groundwork for this. Mr. Jones stated that whatever amount anyone can give is much appreciated.

Ms. Heffernan stated that rally week will be followed by a cookout on Wednesday, October 13, 2010 in the City Parking Ramp. It was noted that this year, a chili cook-off will join the menu of hotdogs, hamburgers, chips, cookies, pop and water for just $5.00.
