Foley, Stephen L. Tollenaer, Jason W. Jones, Joy Murphy and Charles O. Austin III. Also present were City Manager John Phillips, Community and Economic Development Director Greg Champagne, Finance Director Bill Scott, Parks and Recreation Director Bill Nelson, other City staff, Tara Barney, Chief Executive Officer from the Quad Cities Chamber of Commerce, Rick Baker, President and Chief Operating Officer from the Quad Cities Chamber of Commerce, Ian Frink, Board member on Quad Cities First and other representatives from the Quad Cities Chamber and Quad Cities First. Alderman Terry M.A. Brooks I arrived at 5:07 p.m. and Alderman David Conroy arrived at 5:06 p.m.

PRESENTATION BY QUAD CITIES CHAMBER - QUAD CITIES FIRST

City Manager John Phillips inquired upon Community and Economic Development Director Greg Champagne to introduce representatives of the Quad Cities Chamber and Quad Cities First and discuss how this ties in with the City’s economic development strategy and efforts in Rock Island.

Mr. Champagne stated that one of the strategies included in the economic draft strategic plan that was brought to Council this past September was to work in partnership with area organizations that share the same mission. Mr. Champagne advised that three (3) important reasons to partner with other organizations includes; to help pool resources with agencies throughout the region; to tap into expertise that may not be available on staff; and to help the City network with other economic development professionals and other organizations throughout the region. Mr. Champagne stated that the City has been a part of and supported Quad Cities First (formally the Quad City Development Group) over the years. It was noted that the change in leadership and change in direction in the organization has been positive.

Mr. Ian Frink (Crawford Company), a board member on Quad Cities First indicated that the Quad Cities First model is somewhat better than the former Quad City Economic Development Group model. Mr. Frink advised that from the business community standpoint, there is a need to look at things collectively to see the Quad Cities as a whole. Mr. Frink concluded that Rock Island is appreciated as well as other communities.

Ms. Barney provided Council with an update on what has happened in the last year and what can be expected looking towards the future. Ms. Barney advised that Quad Cities First is a business attraction effort. Ms. Barney stated that when they were asked to help transition from the Quad City Development Group to a new model, they looked at one that would have a board comprised of folks that would really focus on how to use the resources that are available to Quad Cities First. Ms. Barney discussed strategic marketing of the Quad Cities region in regards to gaining attention of target companies, industries, site selectors and other opportunities.

Ms. Barney acknowledged that they have a new Quad Cities website with new features including mapping and improved building and site information. It was noted that individual buildings will be marketed at sites in Rock Island and the Quad Cities that best suit targeted industry groups.
Ms. Barney commented that there will be new aerial maps of individual properties, highlighting boundaries and infrastructure. Ms. Barney explained that in shifting resources, a sales professional will be put in place to actively go on the road selling and working in targeted industry areas that have been identified to look at opportunities in regards to additional investment in this region.

Ms. Barney also discussed trade shows as it relates to targeted industries, distributing bi-monthly newsletters in regards to site selectors and elevating international recruitment efforts with states and existing multi-national corporations as it relates to strengthening relationships.

Mr. Baker discussed leads, advanced manufacturing, strengths in industry areas and business and expansion as it relates to existing businesses.

Ms. Barney discussed numbers as it relates to meetings held with potential prospects, site selector visits, trade shows attended and projects generated.

Council discussed the business components of creation, expansion and retention, and overall economic activity as it relates to today’s economy and the direction that the new company is taking.

PROPOSED TAX LEVY

City Manager John Phillips stated that at this time each year, staff inquires upon Council to go on record suggesting that it is not the intention of the City to increase the Property Tax Levy more than 5%. Therefore, a public hearing would not be required.

Mr. Phillips inquired upon Finance Director Bill Scott to review the Truth in Taxation report. Mr. Scott explained that meetings have been held in regards to the 2011/2012 budget and initially, the budget review focused on the projected gap in the General Fund, which was $2.4 million dollars. Mr. Scott indicated that staff has held more meetings and made some adjustments, but there is still a significant deficit. It was noted that the schedule on the adoption of the Property Tax Levy is December 20, 2010. Mr. Scott stated that the Truth in Taxation documents have to be certified and this is why a public meeting is held to indicate that it is not the intention of the City to increase the Tax Levy more than 5%.

Mr. Scott then referred to the charts in the report, and explained to Council that the General Fund operations levy has gone down over time and the other components of the levy have gone up, which include Library and Parks operations and pension funds. Mr. Scott indicated that the City has consistently reduced the property tax rates over the years. It was noted that the City’s portion of the total tax bill has been declining. Mr. Scott then referred to the draft levy in the report, and commented that the maximum amount that the levy could be increased without having a public hearing would provide an additional $135,000.00 for General Fund operations; both pension funds would go up over $300,000.00; Library would increase $57,000.00 and Parks would go up $51,000.00. Mr. Scott advised that the total increase would be $558,000.00 and the current rate would go from 2.38% to 2.46%.
After more discussion regarding the Property Tax Levy, Mr. Phillips stated that the first draft of a list of budget options would come back to Council on December 6\textsuperscript{th}. It was noted that there is a lot of work left to be done.

City Manager Phillips made reference to information included in the memo packet regarding a list of issues that will be coming before Council for discussion and consideration.

Mr. Phillips advised that a follow-up report that was promised to Ms. Watkins last week at the Council meeting will be ready on December 6th.
City Manager Phillips inquired upon Finance Director Bill Scott to review the October Management Report.

Mr. Scott advised that there was not a lot of change in October from September. It was noted that the benchmark is 58%. Mr. Scott stated that in the General Fund, revenues are reported at 59% and expenditures at 49%. Mr. Scott indicated that there has not been a lot of movement in the taxes that are tracked; it is stable compared to September. Mr. Scott advised that staff did not have the numbers for the Income tax when this report was put together. It was noted that the Department of Revenue website was checked and instead of a slight surplus, the report would have showed a slight shortfall of $8,675.00. Mr. Scott commented that there is no distribution for the month of November for Replacement tax; it stayed the same. It was noted that the Sales tax is down a little and $40,000.00 was picked up in September for the Utility tax. Mr. Scott advised that overall, taxes changed downward about $44,000.00 for September.

Alderman Austin reminded everyone to shop Rock Island. Alderman Austin stated that when Council approved a Special Use Permit for Joy Murphy (Alderman), it allowed for one open house day per year for Aunt Joy’s Personalized Christmas Stockings. Alderman Austin stated that Aunt Joy’s Christmas Open House will be held on Saturday, November 27, 2010 from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at Joy Murphy’s home and shop at 4502 7th Avenue. Alderman Austin commented that there will be over 250 stockings to choose from and they can be personalized free while one waits.

Alderman Brooks inquired upon Martin Luther King Center Director Jerry Jones to update Council on this year’s Martin Luther King Center Thanksgiving Dinner.

Mr. Jones stated that the Thanksgiving Dinner was held at the Second Baptist Church. Mr. Jones commented that there were approximately 188 volunteers and over 5,000 plates of food served. Mr. Jones thanked Second Baptist Church for the use of the building and the volunteers for their hard work.
