If the new classification is a successor title to a classification covered by the Agreement and the job duties are not significantly altered or changed, the new classification shall automatically become a part of this Agreement.

If the new classification becomes a part of this agreement under the last preceding paragraph and Union notifies the Employer of a desire to meet within ten (10) working days of its receipt of the Employer's notice, the parties will then meet to review the proposed classification and if unable to reach agreement as to its inclusion or exclusion from the unit, the Employer shall be free to implement its decision and the Union shall be free to challenge that decision before the Illinois Labor Relations Board. If the inclusion of the proposed classification is agreed to by the parties or found appropriate under the Illinois Labor Relations Act, the parties shall then negotiate as to the proper pay grade for the classification.

SECTION 3-USE OF MASCULINE PRONOUNS

The use of the male pronoun "he" or "his" shall be deemed to include female employees as well.

ARTICLE THREE - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The supervisor shall give his oral answer to the employee within ten (10) calendar days after the grievance has been presented.

STEP TWO - An employee(s) may file a grievance in written form with any supervisor within ten (10) calendar days of receiving a response at step one above. Said grievance shall be reviewed by the Management Grievance Committee, which shall be comprised of the Human Resources Director, and the Library Director. STEP THREE - If the grievance is not resolved in Step Two, the union may submit the grievance to Step Four by giving the employer written notice with a request to proceed to Step Four within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving the answer in Step Two.

STEP FOUR - If within ten (10) regular working days after receipt of a written request for binding arbitration, the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator, either party shall require a list of five names from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. From the panel, the parties shall strike names, alternating, with the party requesting arbitration striking the first name and the remaining person will be selected.

Each party shall pay the cost and expenditures incurred by it in connection with the arbitration. The cost of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. Should either party desire a copy of the proceedings, the party requesting the copy shall pay the cost of its copy.

The arbitrator shall have no power to add to or subtract from, or change, modify or amend any of the terms or provisions of this agreement. The arbitrator shall have no power to establish wage scales or change established wage scales. All decisions of the arbitrator, as defined in this Agreement, shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union and the employees covered by this Agreement.

No claim against the Employer, including claims for back pay by an employee or by the Union, shall be retroactive to any date prior to the date of presentation to the grievance in Step One of the grievance procedure. All awards of back pay shall be limited to the amount of back wages the employee would have otherwise earned from his regular and normal employment with the Employer during the period between his termination and reinstatement, if reinstatement is ordered, less any unemployment or other compensation for personal services which he may have received from any source during this period. The employee has an obligation to seek other employment.

SECTION 3-TIMELINES FOR GRIEVANCES

Grievances not filed or appealed within the designated time limits will be treated as having been dropped. The time limits at any step or for any hearing may be extended, in writing by mutual agreement of the parties involved at that particular step. ARTICLE FIVE - DISCIPLINE

SECTION 1-PURPOSE OF DISCIPLINE

In each case the amount of discipline will be determined based on the facts in that case. Unless the facts establish just cause for discharge, a lesser form of discipline intended to rehabilitate the employee will be given.

Discipline shall be imposed as soon as reasonably possible after the Employer is aware of the event or action giving rise to the discipline. If the Employer has reason to discipline an employee, as a general rule it will not be done in the presence of other employees or the public.

Said time shall be limited to periods short in duration and, when possible, shall only be taken with the permission of the employee's supervisor. Employees on the Union's negotiating team shall be paid for work time lost from their normal work schedule due to negotiations for a successor contract. The Employer will permit a total of thirty (30) days of unpaid leave per year for the entire bargaining unit and not per employee for stewards to attend union seminars and meetings. ARTICLE NINE - SENIORITY

SECTION 1-PROBATIONARY PERIOD

The first six months of continuous service will be a probationary period during which time the employee has no seniority (seniority is defined as bargaining unit seniority unless otherwise stated) standing and will be subject to layoff or discharge at the sole discretion of the Employer without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in the Agreement.

Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, the employee will be placed on the seniority list and his seniority will be determined as stated in Section 2 of this Article.

The employer shall quarterly provide a seniority list to the Union.

SECTION 2-SENIORITY DATE

For the purposes of this Article, employees who have only worked full-time shall have their seniority start from date of hire.

Part-time employees shall accumulate seniority for the purposes of this Article on a pro-rata basis, calculated by dividing the number of hours worked in the immediately preceding calendar year by 2,080 and multiplying that fraction times the number of complete anniversary years worked.

Full-time employees who previously worked part-time shall accumulate seniority for the purposes of this Article for their part-time work on a pro-rata basis, calculated by dividing the number of hours worked in the calendar year immediately preceding their becoming full time by 2,080 and multiplying that fraction times the number of complete anniversary years worked part-time and adding that to their complete anniversary years worked full-time.

No credit shall be given for part-time work more than ten (10) years before the effective date of this agreement.

SECTION 3-LAY OFF AND RECALL

When it becomes necessary to decrease the work force, all probationary employees shall be laid off first unless retained for special skills. Then the Employer shall determine the classification to be reduced. The employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in the classification being reduced shall be the first laid off. A laid off employee who has more bargaining unit seniority than an employee in another classification which classification has an equal or lower starting rate of pay may bump the employee with the least bargaining unit seniority in that classification, provided the employee meets all of the requirements for that job. The employee bumping into a classification with an equal starting rate of pay shall not have his rate of pay affected by bumping. The employee bumping into a classification with a lower starting rate of pay shall have his rate of pay reduced by the difference between the starting rate in the classification he is bumping into and the classification he leaves.

Employee shall be recalled in reverse order of layoff provided they possess the skill, ability, and past performance and meet all requirements for the position as provide in the job opening posting.

SECTION 4-RIGHT TO REDUCE HOURS

In the event it becomes necessary to curtail operations, the Employer may, in the interest of maintaining a trained work force, reduce the hours of all employees rather than lay off employees, if by mutual agreement.

- Absence due to illness or injury for a period equal to the employee's seniority or eighteen (18) months, whichever is less.
- Failure to return to work within five (5) working days of notification to return to work after layoff. Certified mail to last known address shall be used in notifying employees to return to work with date of notification to be from date the letter is mailed.

SECTION 6-PROMOTIONS

The term "promotion" means the advancement of an employee to a higher paying position. In the case of promotions, the candidate who possesses the most seniority shall be promoted providing he has made proper application for the bargaining unit position and the following conditions are met: the skills, abilities and past performance for each candidate concerned are substantially equal and the candidates meet all requirements for the position as provided in the job opening posting.

Candidates will be evaluated on their skills, abilities, past performance and ability to perform the job requirements. A candidate will be given a point score based on these factors. The candidate with the highest overall score will be granted the promotion, unless the most senior candidate is within 10 (ten) percent of the highest overall score. In this case, the most senior internal candidate will be granted the promotion.

In cases where the most senior internal candidate for the position is not selected, the employer will provide a written notice to the employee, with a copy to the union, explaining the areas in which the most senior candidate was deemed less qualified than the candidate chosen.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

The City of Rock Island, Illinois (City) and the United Automobile Aerospace and Agricultural Implement Workers of America, Local 2282 Amalgamated (UAW) have met, discussed and agreed to the following changes regarding the subject of fair share fees:

That Article Seven, Section 2 of the collective bargaining agreement currently in force and effect at the time of execution of this LOU contains provisions regarding the maintenance, collection and processing of fair share fees for non-union members of the UAW bargaining unit.

The requirement that non-union members of a public sector bargaining unit can be required to pay fair share fees in lieu of union dues to cover the cost of representation by a labor organization for unit positions was declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Janus vs. AFSCME.

The ruling of the Janus Court requires removal of all contractual rights, provisions, obligations or references related to the collection or payment of fair share fees for UAW Local 2282 bargaining unit members who decline union membership and renders the subject of fair share fees to be a prohibited subject of bargaining. Removal of the contract section in Article Seven identified in paragraph 1 above conforms the contract terms to the requirements of the Janus ruling, and the parties so agree to that removal.

The parties further agree that should the U S. Supreme Court reverse its ruling in Janus vs. AFSCME and hold that it is again lawful for labor organization who represent public sector employees to mandate the payment of fair share fees by non-members employees of public sector bargaining units, the parties hereby agree to meet to negotiate contractual terms on the subject of air share fees. The party demanding bargaining over fair share fees shall notify the duly authorized representative of the other party of their demand to bargain in writing. Said bargaining shall commence within 60 days from receipt of said demand.

In the event a bargaining unit member requests withdrawal from the Union, dues deductions will cease on the first full pay period following the request. Any reimbursement of overpaid dues will be the responsibility of the Union.

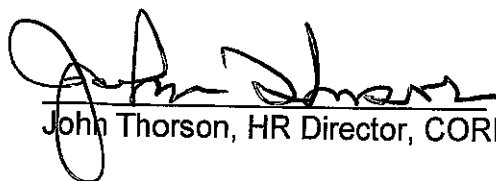

The parties hereto have caused their duly authorized agents to sign this Letter of Understanding this 24th day of January, 2020.
